Discovering Quito

PUSHAQ

Quito, officially “San Francisco de Quito” is the capital of Ecuador. Is also known as Carita de Dios and in 1978 was declared First Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO.

Inside El Centro Histórico de Quito, you will find Churches, Museums and cultural centers that will allow you to learn about Ecuador History, natural and cultural diversity and finally it's richness.

During your trip, you can visit El Panecillo, Itchimbia – El Palacio de Cristal, churches such as: La Compañía de Jesús, La Catedral, San Francisco, El Sagrario, El Voto Nacional, Santo Domingo, among others. Also, you can go to museums such as: Museo de la Ciudad, Palacio de Carondelet, La Capilla del Hombre, Museo del Agua Yaku, Museo Manuela Saenz among others.

WOW Factors to be added to this Experience:

- Visit the domes and towers of the most impressive churches in town

Full day to the middle of the world!

Ciudad Mitad del Mundo is located in the north part of Quito. Inside you will be able to get into the Equatorial Monument, see ancestral homes, Cacao square, visit the Craft Beer Museum, see the Train Station, finally, you can experience the Equinoctial Line.

Near La Ciudad Mitad del Mundo, you can visit the viewpoint of the Pululahua Volcano Crater

An aerial night photograph of Quito, Ecuador, showing the city's dense urban landscape and the illuminated hill of San Francisco. The city lights create a warm glow against the dark sky, with the hilltop church and its surrounding structures being a prominent feature. The foreground shows the rooftops and streets of the old town, while the background reveals the city's expansion into the surrounding hills.
